

NEWS OF SOCIETY AND CLUBS

MISS MARGARET B. FORBES

SOME OF THE OFFICERS OF TENNESSEE FEDERATION OF MUSIC CLUBS NOW ATTENDING BIG CONVENTION

Beethoven Club Hostess at Convention of Music Clubs

The delegates from the music clubs of the state to the annual convention of the Tennessee Federation of Music Clubs are again the guests of the Beethoven club, members of which served as hostesses at the organization meeting held in this city four years ago.

There is a splendid representation from all over the state, about 40 delegates being present.

The convention formally opened on Monday morning at the Nineteenth Century club. By invitation of the state president, Mrs. John Lamar Meek, of Chattanooga, Mrs. J. F. Hill, president of the Beethoven club and a vice-president of the state organization, presided over the opening session and introduced those upon the program.

Following the singing of the "America" with Miss Mosby at the piano, and the invocation by the Rev. C. H. Williams, Ph.D., the visitors were given most cordial welcome to the city by Mayor Rowlett Paine, who spoke of the wonderful spirit which has made Memphis the great city it is today, and expressed his appreciation of music as a great aid in bringing the people closer together.

Mrs. Hill, as president of the Beethoven club, very graciously extended greetings and a hearty welcome to the visitors from that organization, expressing the pleasure it afforded the club members to have the delegates as their guests.

Mrs. Morris E. Temple, of Chattanooga, vice-president for East Tennessee, responded on behalf of the federation, very charmingly thanking the Beethoven club for its welcome. Following the opening addresses, Mrs. Meek took the chair, presiding with her usual grace and skill. Preceding their annual address to the federation, she thanked the members of the Beethoven club for their hospitality and gracious welcome. In her address, which was of exceptional interest, she outlined some of her plans for the coming year and offered a number of suggestions for future work.

During the afternoon session four excellent papers were presented. They were ably prepared and well read, proving of much value as well as interest to the delegates. Mrs. W. J. Gifford, of Memphis, presented "The Work in Community Singing," in which she spoke of the wonderful effect of community singing during the war and its greater needs in reconstruction as a harmonizing, humanizing and Americanizing agency. Mrs. Jason Walker spoke on Americanization through music, emphasizing the need for making music a major study in the public schools. Miss Valerie Parrington spoke on the value of newspaper publicity and how to secure it, initiating the delegates into some of the mysteries of news writing, and Mrs. Caruthers Ewing spoke on the value of community music in a city's life, that being the only music that many among the poorer element may enjoy.

A beautiful feature of the morning was the exquisitely rendered number by Miss Elsa Gerber, whose rich, melodious voice proved a rare treat, while Miss Birdie Chandler at the piano contributed much to the artistic rendition of the number.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Rowlett Paine, the Nineteenth Century club, where by courtesy of the members the meetings are held, had been artistically decorated for the occasion by Mrs. E. B. Douglas and Mrs. Paine with golden iris, pink roses and arrays of flowering shrubbery.

Mrs. James M. McCormack, an executive member of the Beethoven club, presided, as only Mrs. McCormack can, as toast mistress. Instead of following the usual custom of introducing the speakers, Mrs. McCormack chose the unique plan of introducing the topics by a clever bit of original poetry, rhyme or blank verse, with a few quotations borrowed from Shakespeare.

Mrs. McCormack was introduced with a few complimentary remarks by Mrs. J. F. Hill and the toasts were brilliantly responded to as follows:

"More Music, Less Politics," Mayor Rowlett Paine.

"The five necessary essentials to success in state organization," Mrs. J. F. Hill.

"Inspiration," Mrs. John Lamar Meek.

"Organization," Mrs. Henry Lupton.

"Co-operation," Mrs. Morris E. Temple.

"Concentration," Mrs. J. C. Felsenbich.

"Conservation," Mrs. Jason Walker.

"Music in Industry," Mrs. Fred O. Gamble.

"Higher Ideals and Club Loyalty," Mrs. E. G. Wingham.

"Charity to Others and Less Criticism," Mrs. R. L. Brown.

"Music, the Great Unifying Force," Miss Valerie Parrington.

Following the afternoon session the delegates were complimented with a musical tea, over which Mrs. C. P. J. Mooney, as chairman of the department of music of the Nineteenth Century club, presided as hostess, assisted by the club officers and members of the board of directors. The rooms thrown open to the guests were exquisitely decorated. The mantels in the drawing room were massed with wisteria, white blossoming shrubbery, pink roses and in the tea room lovely roses and lilies were effectively employed. Beautiful musical numbers added much to the pleasure of the occasion.

On Monday evening the delegates will be entertained with a brilliant reception in the ballroom of the Hotel Gayoso. A beautiful feature of the occasion will be the musical program arranged by the pianist-teacher, Theodore Dohmann.

All members of the Beethoven club and their guests have been invited to be present.

Entertainments

Ninety First Birthday Party.

Judge William M. Smith, who until a few recent years has been one of Memphis' most prominent and successful business men, celebrated his ninety-first birthday on Saturday evening with a delightful surprise party at the home of his daughter, Mrs. B. S. Byrnes, entertained in his honor in her home, 1027 McLemore avenue.

For the occasion a profusion of pink roses and peonies were artistically arranged about the rooms where the guests extended their congratulations. Later the great-grandchildren invited the honor guest into the dining room where a large cake with 91 candles brightly burning greeted him and where a dainty lunch was served.

Judge Smith has been a popular attorney and has scores of friends who will join in the wish that many more happy birthdays be in store for him.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Rowlett Paine, the Nineteenth Century club, where by courtesy of the members the meetings are held, had been artistically decorated for the occasion by Mrs. E. B. Douglas and Mrs. Paine with golden iris, pink roses and arrays of flowering shrubbery.

Mrs. James M. McCormack, an executive member of the Beethoven club, presided, as only Mrs. McCormack can, as toast mistress. Instead of following the usual custom of introducing the speakers, Mrs. McCormack chose the unique plan of introducing the topics by a clever bit of original poetry, rhyme or blank verse, with a few quotations borrowed from Shakespeare.

Mrs. McCormack was introduced with a few complimentary remarks by Mrs. J. F. Hill and the toasts were brilliantly responded to as follows:

"More Music, Less Politics," Mayor Rowlett Paine.

"The five necessary essentials to success in state organization," Mrs. J. F. Hill.

"Inspiration," Mrs. John Lamar Meek.

"Organization," Mrs. Henry Lupton.

"Co-operation," Mrs. Morris E. Temple.

"Concentration," Mrs. J. C. Felsenbich.

"Conservation," Mrs. Jason Walker.

"Music in Industry," Mrs. Fred O. Gamble.

"Higher Ideals and Club Loyalty," Mrs. E. G. Wingham.

"Charity to Others and Less Criticism," Mrs. R. L. Brown.

"Music, the Great Unifying Force," Miss Valerie Parrington.

Weddings

Carr-Rambo.

A pretty wedding that came as a surprise to many friends of the bride and bridegroom was that of Miss Sue Belle Carr and Mr. William D. Rambo, which was solemnized on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock in the home of the bride, the Rev. A. U. Boone officiating.

The bride wore a handsome suit of blue tulle with hat and accessories in harmony and a corsage bouquet of sweetheart roses, sweetpeas and valley lilies.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rambo left for New York and before their return will visit other interesting Eastern points.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Rambo have a host of friends in the city, and out, who will be interested in the announcement of their marriage.

Mrs. Rambo, as well as Mr. Rambo, is prominently associated in business circle, being secretary-treasurer of an insurance company.

Crickman-Moore.

The beautiful, but quiet marriage of Miss Jewel Crickman, daughter of Mrs. Ernest Parker, of Whiteville, Tenn., to Mr. Benjamin Frank Moore, of Whiteville, was solemnized Sunday evening at 6:20 in the Central Baptist church, the Rev. James H. Oakley, pastor of the Prescott Memorial Baptist church, officiating.

The bride was attractive in a traveling suit of blue tulle with accessories to match, wearing a corsage bouquet of white roses and valley lilies. Accompanying the bride and groom to the altar were Miss Ella Voetmann, of Jackson, Tenn., who wore a blue tailored suit carrying beautiful flowers, and Mr. Ellis Moore, brother of the groom.

Among those who witnessed the marriage were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duncan, of Whiteville.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore will return on Wednesday to Whiteville, where they will make their future home.

Here and There

Mrs. R. N. Garrett, president of the Arkansas Federation of Music clubs, is a visitor in the city and is attending the meetings of the Tennessee federation.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Boren, of Murfreesboro, Ky., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Patterson, 570 Rayner. Mr. Boren is agent for the N. C. & St. L. railroad at Murfreesboro.

Mrs. Frances Lincoln left Monday for several weeks' visit with relatives in Conway, Ark.

Additional society on page 7.

Old Floors Refinished.

New floors, metal weatherstrips and floor & screen Co., Main 1533. adv screens installed anywhere. Cheas

Yellow Dog Lunchery

4 S. Second St.

American Management—Southern Cooking

Quality Food—Reasonable Prices

Prompt and Efficient Service

—TRY IT ONCE—

BRACELET WATCHES

If properly repaired will give satisfactory and time-keeping service. To properly repair a bracelet watch requires skilled workmanship, new and genuine material. You get these and also moderate charges, with a GUARANTEE of one year, if you will bring or send your bracelet watch to Perel & Lowenstein, 168 S. Main St., Memphis, Tenn. What is true of bracelet watches is likewise true of other watches or clocks. Mail order service.

Ma says - whenever she wants me to hurry back from the grocery store, she heads the list with

Post Toasties

Clear your complexion with Resinol

You owe it to yourself to keep your skin clear, radiant and healthy, as nature intended it to be. If it has become muddy, rough, blotched and oily, RESINOL OINTMENT will do wonders for it. With RESINOL SOAP, this mild, healing ointment has been used for years as a standard skin treatment. It is easy and economical to use and has a clean wholesome odor.

Don't delay—ask your dealer for the Resinol products today.

Sensation of the Season!

EMBRACING A SPECIAL PURCHASE OF 1,000 HIGH-CLASS SPRING AND SUMMER

Suits

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

During these two days we will reduce every suit in our entire department and arrange them in groups to suit every individual. Stunning Etons, blouse effects, vestee suits, Boleros, new tailleurs, embroidered suits, ripples, flares, box suits, sport models, hipped-on waists and semi-tailored.

The moderate regular price of every cloth suit in the house has been sharply cut; all sizes, 16, 18, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50.

Tricotine, serge, hairline stripes, velour checks, flowered, plain and fancy silk and pussy willow linings.

Group 1
$25

Group 2
39.75

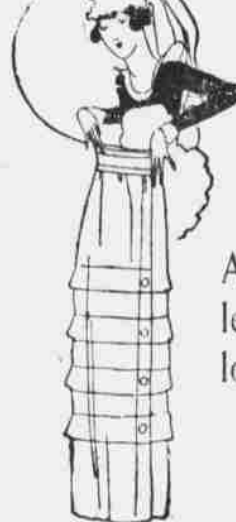

Group 3
$50

Group 4
$65

POIRET TWILLS
SHEPHERD CHECKS
SMART TWEEDS
WOOL JERSEYS

(Third Floor.)

TOMORROW'S PAPERS WILL CARRY THE NEWS of the MOST REMARKABLE SALE of

Silk Skirts

Memphis Has Ever Seen

A purchase of exactly 1,000, embracing an endless array of styles, colors and materials far below their real value.

Materials alone that would cost $7.50 to $15.00 per yard, plenty of whites. See Tuesday's papers.

(Third Floor.)

Men!—Select Your New Straw Hats

This store undoubtedly sells more men's straw hats in course of a season than any other two Memphis stores combined, and in consequence not only shows complete line of styles and kinds, but priced decidedly to your advantage.

Straw Sailors$3, $3.50, $4 Panamas....$5, $6, $7
Bangkoks at$5 and $6 Leghorns at$5

(Main Floor.)

Sale Tuesday of Women's Night Gowns $1.98

New arrivals in pink and white, some made with short lacy sleeves, others camisole tops, some Windsor crepe, muslins and batiste; sizes for all, cut full and the lengths 54; over 600 gowns, including 50 different styles.

(Fifth Floor.)

Why Be Without It

When It Costs So Little!

The New Edison

"The Phonograph With a Soul"

You can buy the Edison in the model illustrated and 12 selections on six double records, for—

$126.90

And on terms of only $2.50 weekly, after a reasonable first payment, which you can name yourself.

Let us make your home happy with one of these fine instruments—right now.

(Music Shop—Second Floor.)

Bry's
MEMPHIS, TENN.

Canvas Oxfords

$9

Just as pictured with white ivory welt soles and covered military heels, $9.00.

(Queen Quality Shop—Main Floor.)

SAVOY

Today and Tuesday BESSIE LOVE

—in— "PEGEEN"

A delightfully charming story of a girl who made everyone happy.

Also "CABARET A LA CHICKEN"

MAXINE DANCERS A Sextette of Superb Artists

Tracey & Mohr

Writers of Popular Song Hits "Mammy O' Mine," "Wonderful Pal" and many others.

Tuesday night is amateur song writers' contest for a season pass. Tracey and Mohr will be the judges and tell you where to have your song published, some and sing your own song.

3—Other Loew Acts—3

And a Wonderful Pictur Bert Lytell Jimmy Valentine"

Usual Afternoons (until 5 o'clock), 15c-20c. Evening, Sat. Sun. Afternoons, 15c-25c-35c.